Honens Laureate Circle members support Honens' Artist Development Program and provide inspiring opportunities to young musicians around the world. The Program provides three years of artistic and career guidance to the Honens Prize Laureate including worldwide representation, debut recitals in career-building markets, residencies and special projects; coaching and mentorship opportunities; and the production, release, and worldwide distribution of professional recordings.

* Due to the current global situation and requirements set by Alberta Health Services and the Government of Canada, Honens cannot guarantee delivery of these exact benefits and continues to work towards innovative solutions to connect with you and to deliver the support and opportunities Nicolas so richly deserves.
